Professional writer since age 14

St. Petersburg, FL

(Wicked handsome picture of me goes here)

I've been writing for money since I was 14 years old. I'm a bit older than that now, and in the intervening years I've sharpened my writing chops on marketing copy, PR materials, technical docs and academic research type stuff.

Professional writing experience:

- Freelance copywriter, 2009 - present. Clients included tech sector companies, professional services firms, and social media consultants.
- Published a book in 2009 (Springer)
- 5 years (2004 - 2009) doing academic writing as a grad student / faculty member @ Univ. of South Florida
- 7 years (1999 - 2006) as a marketing & tech writer @ Quest Solutions, Inc. (Sarasota, FL), developers of high-end estimating software for the construction industry
- 2 years (1998-1999) as a tech writer @ Trader Publishing Co. (Clearwater, FL), writing documentation for complex in-house layout & design systems
- 1 year (1992-1993) writing magazine articles, brochures and press releases for the Florida Home Builders Association in Tallahassee, FL
- 2 years (1990 - 1992) as a print and broadcast journalist in Tallahassee, FL

Education

- Univ. South Fla., Ph.D. in Geography (2007)
- Univ. South Fla., MA in Economics (2003)
- Florida St. U., BA in American Studies (1993)

Stuff I've done that doesn't really count as "writing:"

- 3 years (2009 - present) as an adjunct professor, Univ. South Florida & St. Petersburg College, teaching geography and economics.
- 2 years (2010 - present) running a very small independent record label (Mind Balm Records) that I founded. I basically do everything that needs doing.
